

DPCA Show at the Annapolis Senior Center

All members of the DPCA are invited to show their work at the Annapolis Senior Center through the month of June. The center is located at 119 South Villa Ave. Annapolis, MD 21401 (Wiley H. Bates Heritage Park).

Work will be accepted at the Center on June 2 from 9:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. Members may bring in two works for a fee of $5.00 for both. Please come with work tagged on the back with the Title, Artist's name, e-mail if desired, phone number and price. Artists will be contacted directly by the person interested in buying the piece.

There will be no commission. Works of any size will be accepted, but those over 30" must have Plexiglas in place of glass. Framing must be of good quality with wire attached for proper hanging. Works will be signed in at the center, and members will fill out a form at that time.

This is meant to be a nice, uncomplicated show for one and all. The last time we showed here we sold several works, so although the show will not have a theme, you may want to consider pricing and subject matter for the buying public. This is entirely up to you. If you have questions, please contact Annette Uroskie at amuroskie@aol.com.

I would also appreciate the help of anyone who would like to work with hanging the show, taking in the work, etc.
